Personal Assignment

At the beginning of your mentoring year, you signed a covenant. One of the things you agreed to do was "use this mentoring year to identify a plan for how you can serve and lead in your church and community based upon gifts, season of life and passions." Your Personal Ministry Plan is where you put that into practice. Use the handout to develop your Personal Ministry Plan. Come ready to discuss your experience, including where you feel led to invest in the lives of others and the next steps you are going to take to make that happen.
