Parenting - Deuteronomy 6:5-7

"Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up."

Quiet Time

Continue to make it your goal to have a quiet time 5 times per week. Also, continue to develop your prayer life/journal and this month focus on specific verses you can pray for your children.

Book Assignment

Read the book assigned by your mentor. When you've finished the book, write a summary of the key insights God gave you and any application to your life. Think through the following questions:

How did God use this book to encourage and spur you on as a mom?

What specific things do you want to remember and apply with your children now?

What things do you want to remember to apply in the future?

What are the areas the author mentioned that you find the most challenging right now?

Make a copy for your mentor.

Marriage Focus (if applicable)

Complete the Marriage Exercise and Date Night Question. Remember, one of the best things you can do for your children is to keep your marriage a priority. Plan a special date night with your spouse.

Peer Challenge

What insights has God shown you this month as you focused on parenting? What challenges are you currently facing parenting your children? How has God encouraged you this month in your role as a mom?

ACTION STEP

Write one action step you are willing to take as a result of what God has shown you this month. Take this opportunity to encourage and cheer one another on!

Personal Ministry Plan

Continue to work on your Personal Ministry Plan. God may be using this month's topic to help you on this year-long journey to evaluate, process and put the pieces together for your own Personal Ministry Plan.
