MENTOR:

Your insight will be very helpful and welcomed in their lives. It is important for you to be willing to be transparent. We know this is a very hard area to share personal struggles or failures in, but such a big area to speak God's truth into. Women will connect much better with you when you're willing to share your personal life with them.

Share from your life a time you saw God work when you trusted Him and His word.

If applicable, share a time when you didn't do it God's way and the consequences that resulted.
